VANCOUVER ISLAND
SHORT FILM FESTIVAL

We are pleased to announce the 7th annual Vancouver Island Short Film Festival. The VISFF will showcase the best in local short films Friday April 13th and Saturday April 14th, 2012 at the Malaspina Theatre at Vancouver Island University in Nanaimo.

Send a completed entry form, entry fee ($30) and any supporting material (stills, bios, etc.) to the Film Festival office by January 1st, 2012. Mail entries to: The Vancouver Island Short Film Festival c/o The Nanaimo Arts Council #259, 4750 Rutherford Road Nanaimo, BC V9T 4K6.

Entry fees: $30 per entry. Acceptable methods of payment include cash or cheque. For entrants paying in person, debit and credit cards are also accepted. Make cheques or money orders payable to the Nanaimo Arts Council.

All types of short films will be accepted for consideration into the festival. All films must be 12 minutes or less including credits. We will be capable of projecting your film up to 720p resolution. Please submit your video in a MOV file on a DVD (preferred), MiniDV, 8mm, DVD or VHS and labeled with the film title, running-time and contact information (name, email and phone number). Entrants may submit more than one entry, provided that each entry includes a separate entry form, entry fee and is on a separate MiniDV tape, DVD or VHS tape. We will show a maximum of 2 films per filmmaker.

Entries will be viewed by a panel of judges. A short list of films for the screening on April 13th, 2012 and a second screening and awards show on April 14th, 2012 will be announced by March 1st, 2012. If your film is accepted into the festival (we will accept 12-20 films), we will contact you to request production stills, bios and any other pertinent information. Each accepted filmmaker will receive artist fees and 2 complimentary tickets to the April 13th shorts screening and award show. Additional Tickets for either show are $15 and will be available for sale in January at the Nanaimo Arts Council Gallery in Nanaimo North Town Centre, Nanaimo Art Galler at VIU and the House of Indigo in downtown Nanaimo. A limited amount of tickets will be available at the door on the night of the show.

The second screening on Saturday April 14th at 5pm will also include a pitch competition, awards ceremony, food and drinks. Awards will be given out in several categories.

The Vancouver Island Short Film Festival will make every effort to ensure the safe keeping of all films submitted to the festival. However, the applicant in applying to the festival agrees to release the Festival, the Nanaimo Arts Council, its Officers, Directors and other representatives from any and all claims arising in any way from the submission of materials by or on behalf of the Applicant, whether MOV file, MiniDV, DVD or VHS or otherwise to the festival. Your signature on the entry form is your acceptance of these conditions. Films will be used for screening at the event and for promotional purposes for the festival.

For info visit www.visff.com or email submissions@visff.com
